

Good Laboratory Practice

Training
Online 4U

Who is the course suited to?

GLP regulates the practices of scientists working on the safety testing of prospective drugs. If you are working in a laboratory setting conducting non-clinical trials, then you must be compliant with all principles of GLP to ensure the quality and integrity of data and that a true representation of that data is presented to the Regulatory Authorities, making this training essential.

Module 1:

- Introduction to GLP
- General Provisions
- Organisation and Personnel
- Facilities
- Equipment, Apparatus and Materials
- Standard Operating Procedures

Module 2:

- Test and Reference Items
- Test Systems
- The Conduct of a Non-Clinical Laboratory Study
- Records and Reports
- Compliance Monitoring Programs
- Audits and Inspections

Price: £149 inc. VAT (discount available for 6 or more users).
